IT is quite evident to all unprejudiced minds, that at our late primary meetings there was some fraudulent counting, that counted out at least one man; and, of course, counted in another. Fraudulent doings are not Democratic, not fair nor yet decent. An honest party cannot run in fraudulent ways.

THE State officers to be chosen at the next October election in Ohio, are as follows: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Judge of the Supreme Court, Attorney General, Clerk of the Supreme Court, Treasurer of State, State Commissioner of Common Schools, Member of Board of Public Works.

TILDEN has been making a poor, beg-garly, pitiful speech on his defeat, and telling the people that fraud will never prosper, &c. He found out that fact when he sent $8,000 to buy up a vote in the Oregon case, and failed to bag his game.-Repository.

We gave Mr. Tilden's truthful and manly remarks last week, and it seems the noble sentiments do not please the Hayes-fraud organs. As to the $8,000, it appears the old organ still believes that "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth."

THE report from Washington is that Garfield and Hayes are out, and that the latter did not call upon his fraudulency when at Washington. The reasons given for sourness on the part of Garfield-are as follows:

1 That Hayes became provoked at him because he showed the newspaper correspondents the letter he wrote him, asking him to withdraw from the Senatorial canvass in Ohio.

2. Because Hayes has refused to make three appointments in which Garfield 3. Because Garfield finds that Stanley Matthews has circumvented kim, not only in the matter of the Senatorship, but has interfered to a great extent in the control of Ohio patronage, heretofore considered by him peculiarly his own,

W.W. Canto, Ingerhousent,

The document we gave last week, proving that votes were actually changed, chanan, in 1860, that the Government stolen, from John McGregor and given had no power to protect itself from disto John T. With tion of civil war. It will be remembered that General Cass resigned the State portto all personal considerations, and fair folio because he differed from Buchanan dealing is a fundamental principle in Democracy. The worst enemies an honest party can have, are those who would use the organization for their own selfish and ambitious purposes, through corrupt and knavish means, "Honesty is the best policy," and honesty is the only rule to secure permanent Democratic success.

We know that the honest Democrats of Stark endorse these views. The men in this county who, through evil and through good report, have stood firm and kept alive the Democratic cause, demand what is right, and will not tamely submit to fraud and wrong.

ALL this twaddle about the currency-"inflammation uff der currency"-may be settled by reference to the Constitution and the principles of justice. That instrument says, "No State shall emit bills of credit, or make anything but gold and silver a tender in payment of debts," Again, "Congress shall have power "To coin money and regulate the value thereof." The aim in the Constitution evidently was to prevent tinkering with paper promises to pay, so as to disturb values, and victimize and rob business and la-

The Democratic party has always stood by a strict construction of the Constitution, and insisted that the currency of the country, whatever it was, should be good as the best; that the people should not be cursed with an irredeemable and depreciated currency. No greater curse can be inflicted upon labor and business. As we have often said, in such a state of things all values and labor are as uncertain as a gambler's luck. Are we not now-a-days realizing the evil consequences of bad financial management in every respect. A Government policy that interferes with values as has been the case in this country for years past, inevitably and invariably brings ruinous results. History is full of examples of this kind.

The power of a stream to drive machinery depends upon the volume of its water and its velocity. A small stream with a good fall makes a moving current capable of useful work, while stagnant water, however large the volume, cannot be utilized.

The currency of a country resembles the stream. If actively employed quickly passing from hand to hand, it is a power, and drives business. A sound tion to know say that Peter B. Sweeney's currency creates confidence, removes unindorsement has not been found on a certainty and gives security. Democracy single check or other paper which was and justice demand one currency for all, and suspected of representing any part of the that currency good as the best.

Russia is in the money market of Europe to borrow seventy-five millions of dollars; and is making a forced loan upon her own people of twice that amount. Money is the sinew of war. The Russian loan in England would not float, and the bankers at Paris and Berlin take it at thirty per cent discount, and then with a big commission. This is the heaviest discount Russia has paid since 1859, unless it was in 1866. Russian credit is but little better than that of the Turk. The Russian debt before this war was $1,254,810,000, and her forced paper circulation amounts to $565,223,915. Russia knows nothing about specie payment and cares nothing. Even in peace times her revenues are short of her expenditures from five to twenty-five millions.
At this rate repudiation is only a question of time. Some resolute Czar will come along in time who will wipe it out at one dash with a ukase. A few examples of this kind would do good to the world, and teach the money sharks bet-ter than to furnish funds to carry on murderous, grasping war.

MR. BLAINE told the colored cadet, Flipper, just graduated at West Point, just before he became Second Lieutenant Flipper, that if he ever needed political influence, or a sincere though humble friend, he was to call on Blaine. This was very fine and chivalric on the part of Blaine. And now the question comes, was it Flipper who told the reporters about it, or was it-but no, it cannot be. Ah, was this not lovely and humanitarian in Blaine? Magnanimous and chivalrous Blaine! Ingersoll's Blaine!

CHAS. N. SCHMICK, of Leetonia, Columbiana county, gave us a pleasant call on Tuesday last. Charley is a genial, wholesouled gentleman, and a good Democrat. He formerly lived in Canfield, Mahoning county, but lately moved to Leetonia, as Secretary and Treasurer of the Cherry Valley Mine and Rolling Mill. THERE was a frightful slaughter of good men at the Republican Primary meetings last Saturday in Stark county. It was a great surprise to many of the old liners and leaders. We understand our neighbor, Tom Saxton, was somewhat agitated. There are few happy families these days of cruel disappointments. The Hayes family is the chief one in luck; even the Camerons have had to gulp their 'erow" down.
